

2017 Oklahoma Study Abroad Project

Service Learning in the Dominican Republic

May 25th – June 1st, 2017

Now through Sept. 26th, 2016, applications are open for two $2,500 scholarships that will cover the majority of costs for TWO full-time NOC students to participate in a short-term study abroad service learning trip to the Dominican Republic (program total is $2,855).

NOC students will join other college students and several Oklahoma faculty members and work with local community members and NGOs on several community and rural development projects in the DR.
