June 18-July 1, 2017

University College Dublin

6 Credit Hours (H, I/H, D)

Very Limited Space, Enroll Now

Northern Oklahoma College is partnering with University College in Dublin, Ireland's oldest and most renowned university, to offer the 2017 DUBLIN SUMMER PROGRAM, June 18-July 1. Students will attend courses, participate in educational and cultural faculty-led and independent-field programs and enjoy guest lectures. Students will be a part of an Irish and international university community in one of the most beautiful cities in the world. (Additional info: www.noc.edu/global)

GLBL 2113: Global Studies in Humanities (H, I) This course will explore Ireland's rich and diverse cultural aspects. Students will examine cultural fields such as literature, music, visual and performing arts, sports, anthropology, religion, language, history, politics and philosophy. (Meets requirements for humanities elective and International Dimension.)

HUMN 2103: Introduction to American Studies (H, D) Interdisciplinary study of the American civilization through case studies of American cultural groups and perceptions in order to understand the multiple roles of culture in American life. It will also investigate concepts of American cultural diffusion, Americanization and "America" in a global view. (Meets requirements for humanities elective and Diversity Dimension.)

There will be a required pre-departure reading packet for both courses.

HOUSING and MEALS: Students stay in UCD dormitories in en suite single rooms. The residence hall reception desk is staffed 24 hours a day. Students will have access to laundry facilities, college library, computer lab, common kitchen, student center, gym, WiFi and swimming pool. All students will receive $15*per day meal allowance which can be used to purchase meals in the various campus catering facilities.

FEES: $2,800 (Airfare is separate and must be organized by the student.) A nonrefundable deposit of $700 will be due upon enrollment. A second payment of $1,270 will be charged to student accounts and due in early March 2017 and is nonrefundable after March 1, 2017. The fee includes tuition, fees, housing [during the 14 days of courses], books, orientation tour, some local transport, required course activities, INext Travel and medical insurance, a group excursion outside of Dublin and meal allowance (2 meals per day*). Students will need money for local travel, shopping, snacks, meals away from campus, independent tours/travel, etc. The final balance of $828 will be due May 1, 2017. [Out-of- state fees of approximately $1,125 will apply on final tuition payment.]

DEADLINE: The last day to enroll is May 1, 2017; however, due to limited space available, we anticipate space to fill up early. If a student enrolls after early March, the deposit and second payment are due upon enrollment.
